

Julie Brook Public Talk in Tokyo at Midori-so2 Gallery

River Bank 7, red Marienfluss, NW Namibia L.2100cm H.160cm

Commune 246's Midori.so2 Gallery, the Daiwa Foundation & the ART foundation invite you to a public talk by British Artist, Julie Brook.

The artist will show and discuss open air sculptural works on remote Scottish islands and in Libyan & Namibian deserts. Brook was shortlisted for the Daiwa Foundation Art Prize 2015. www.juliebrook.com

DATE: Tues. May 24, Drinks at 6:30pm / Presentation at 7:00pm

VENUE:Commune 246 / Midori.so2

Directions:

3-13-16, Minami-Aoyama, Minato-ku, Tokyo (From Omotesando Station A4 Exit go right to Omotesando Intersection, turn right and Commune 246 is a half block down Aoyama Dori on the right side with the Midori.so2 bldg. in the back of the complex)

RSVP Junko Kono : junko.kono@dajf.org

Hideto lida: hideto1988@gmail.com

MAP

